SCRIPTURE READING Matthew 20:1-16 Debbie Wagner

"For the kingdom of heaven is like a landowner who went out early in the morning to hire laborers for his vineyard. After agreeing with the laborers for a denarius for the day, he sent them into his vineyard. When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the marketplace, and he said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right.' So they went. When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same. And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around, and he said to them, 'Why are you standing here idle all day?' They said to him, 'Because no one has hired us.' He said to them, 'You also go into the vineyard.' When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, 'Call the laborers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first.' When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received a denarius. Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received a denarius. And when they received it, they grumbled against the landowner, saying, 'These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat.' But he replied to one of them, 'Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for a denarius? Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you. Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?' So the last will be first, and the first will be last."

The Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God!

Thank you, Dennis Korth, for your remarkable and faithful service as our church usher for more than 50 years.

IPAC Event: "Building Strong Communities Through Allyship," a conversation with Bill Van Lopik about what it means to be an ally, will take place in the chapel today, September 20, after worship. Bill is a member of the Indigenous Peoples' Allies Committee, has lived and worked in Central America addressing issues of extreme poverty, worked as a professor at the College of Menominee Nation for over 20 years, lived as a houseparent with developmentally challenged adults and worked as a community organizer with formerly incarcerated individuals. Come and join the conversation!

Fall Fire & Faith: Join Pastor Nick September 23 from 6:30-7:45PM in the labyrinth for a campfire fire and faith-filled conversations. We will discuss "Spirituality 101" by learning about common misconceptions and important practices in Christian spirituality. Then, we will be "Discerning What God is Doing" through a brief study of the book of Acts. This is a great way to make new connections and enjoy brisk fall weather. All are welcome to come early or stay late to walk the sacred path of our labyrinth. Please bring: your own chair, a headlamp for reading, reading glasses if you need them, and an open heart. All other materials will be provided.

Habitat Faith Build 2026: Do you want to improve the life of a family and make a difference in your community? This is your opportunity! On Thursday, September 24, First Congregational Church volunteers will be installing drywall. The build site location is 2111 East Esther Street, Appleton. We need 8 construction volunteers and several food providers. Jose and Cecillia's family would appreciate your efforts. Help represent our church in this meaningful partnership by signing up! For more information you can call or text Tim De Hart (ask office for information), or email at tdehart@new.rr.com.

CESA 6 Poverty Simulation: One Month in the Life of Someone Experiencing Poverty: On Thursday, September 24, 9:00AM-12:00PM at St. Joseph Parish, 404 W Lawrence St, Appleton, WI. A free-will offering will be taken and food and beverages are provided. Register with this QR code or link Poverty Simulation RSVP.

NAMI Walk: Join us on Saturday, October 3, 9:00–11:00AM at Timber Rattler Stadium. The Faith, Hope and Love team from FCUCC and ESTHER are looking for more team members to join us on our walk to support the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI) of the Fox Valley. It's a 5K with a great group of people and we're raising money to support the wonderful programs offered by NAMI to help those who live with mental health conditions. If you can't walk with us, please consider a donation to help support the cause. Use this link or QR code to either donate or join us on the walk https://www.namiwalks.org/foxvalley Remember our team's name – Faith, Hope and Love. For questions or more information, please contact Mary Sullivan through Realm or the church office.

September Collection for Henderson Settlement: A large group will be serving at Henderson Settlement in Frakes, KY, October 11-17. This year the need is for bath towels and washcloths. These items do not need to be the top of the line, however durable towels that dry and absorb are the request. We are also collecting personal hygiene items: shampoo, conditioner, men and women's deodorants, body wash, bar soap, hand soap. Items should be regular size, not travel nor extra-large. All items can be placed in the blue bin in the narthex. We realize there is a great need right here in the Fox Valley for many items due to the tornado. The need at Henderson Settlement is a continuing one. Whatever you are able to donate will be greatly appreciated!

AAUW 89th Annual Used Book Sale: The Appleton Branch of "American Association of University Women" is holding its 89th annual used book sale "Books are a Window to the World" October 15-18, 22-25, and 29-31 at the Fox River Mall. We are accepting contributions of books from the community. This includes hardcover & paperback books, children's books, books on CD, sheet music, CDs, DVDs, puzzles, & games. (Please, no magazines, textbooks, or VHS tapes.) For book pick-up & drop-off, please call 920-284-7098; 920-205-7370; 920-687-1084; or 920-540-7751. Profits provide scholarships for women.

Evening Prayer Group: Join Pastor Katherine for a monthly evening prayer group via Zoom. We will convene on Sunday evenings at 7:00PM, praying liturgies from Celtic and contemplative prayer traditions. We will also take time at the end of our gatherings to share joys and concerns. Participants must register to receive the Zoom link. Dates include September 20, October 25, November 22, December 20, January 17, February 21, March 21, April 18, and May 16. The Zoom link will be emailed out on Sunday morning, so please register by noon on Sunday to ensure that you will receive it before the gathering.

Library News: It's September so that means it's time for Pastors' Picks again. This year instead of having the pastors pick new books, we'll remind you of the excellent books they've picked before.

A Prayer for the Earth: The Story of Naamah. (Nick) This is a wonderfully imaginative telling of the flood story through the eyes and actions of Noah's wife- Naamah. While not directly derived from scripture, the description of Naamah as a woman who gathers and tends and helps to re-establish God's creation post-flood fits with her name which means "she does what is pleasing in the sight of the Lord."

Let your life Speak by Parker Palmer. (Nick) A small, easy read, Parker Palmer invites us into deep contemplation over the divine purposes of the human life. He encourages us to listen to the voice from within, the voice of the Spirit, an inbuilt gift within all human souls, which invites us to lives of faithful commitment and the development of a vocation that is pleasing to God.

Final Gifts by Maggie Callahan and Patricia Kelly. (Katherine) I read this book in seminary, for one of my pastoral care courses, and I consider it one of the most formative books I read in that season. Written by two hospice nurses, Final Gifts recounts many strange and wondrous experiences they witnessed firsthand as people prepared to pass from this life. This book not only made me a more empathetic person, it also disrupted my fears of death and dying.

EJWG News: The Economic Justice Work Group, in partnership with faith communities and community organizations, has continued work on initiatives that emerged from the Faith Communities Housing Summit we hosted two years ago. One initiative is building a Fox Cities network of people committed to addressing the local housing crisis. Become a part of this network and help ensure that everyone in our community has access to safe, stable, and affordable housing; for further information and link to the sign-up form, visit Ways to be a Housing Champion or use this QR code.

Relatedly, the City of Appleton is proposing changes to its zoning codes to expand housing options while ensuring development fits the community; to learn more, visit Appleton PZCC or use this QR code to read communications sent to our network on this. Please direct questions you may have to Jo Muehl at josephine.muehl@gmail.com.

NOAHH Requests: Items needed include Driver's Education classes and behind the wheel, total cost is $425, multiple bikes for teenagers, cleaning supplies, laundry supplies, laundry basket, full size sheets, paper towels, toilet paper, facial tissues, hygiene items, feminine products, and a small microwave. Call Barb Mincheff, Outagamie County Health & Human Services Volunteer Services Coordinator at 920-832-5515 for pick-up or drop-off.

COUNCIL HIGHLIGHTS

DID YOU KNOW
that this church where you worship is a self-governing body led by an elected Church Council and a Collaborative Ministry Team (CMT) composed of two Co-Pastors and a Director of Operational Ministries?

WE WANT YOU TO KNOW what the Council is doing when it gets together with CMT on the fourth Tuesday evening every month to oversee the ministries and support carrying them out.

SO YOU DO KNOW,
HERE ARE HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE SECRETARY'S JULY 2026 MINUTES, APPROVED BY COUNCIL IN AUGUST:

- Summer worship attendance has increased 20% over 2025.
- Pledge giving and annual trust and endowment income exceed budget projections—while church expenditures are under, "looking very, very good."
- Making our church "more useful, to more people, more of the time" will see final plans for costing in November, an actual budget in December, and "shovels in the ground" during the first two months of 2027.
- Funds to hire a pastoral care associate will also be budgeted for next year . . .
- and a transition back to two Sunday services is contemplated with congregation consultation and approval.
